

4-H Fashion Revue Script Information

Use this form as a guide if you are having trouble writing a script on your own. Please do not forget to either attach a photo of you in your outfit or e-mail it to awood@ksu.edu. If you are familiar with script writing and comfortable with writing it on your own, you don't need to use this form. Simply e-mail your script and photo or bring it in to the extension office. New this year, you can also submit your script and photo online to the FairEntry system while entering in the event.

Script writing tips: First, always write in the third person. For example, use your full name in the first or second sentence and refer to yourself thereafter using your first name or he/she. Secondly, if you have constructed your own garment, take a look at the pattern's envelope. Some provide a description of the outfit, or you can use this an example for your script. And finally, check out the pattern or clothing manufacturer's website. Some provide descriptions of the garment. This is a great start!
